NY 100-156443

MARY WALTERS - Denver Committee to End the War in Viet Nam
AUSTIN (Negro, male) - member of Mississippi delegation
STAUGHTON LYND - Boston
DAVE DELLINGER - Liberation Magazine
JERRY RUBIN
NADJIA (or Nadia) - SDS

DONNA ALLEN - Women's Strike for Peace

FRANK EMSPAK: He accused J. Edgar Hoover and the FBI, the C.I.A. and the Secret Service of "lying" to the American people about Viet Nam.

IRVING BEINEN: He invited everyone to attend the following:
1. Intercontinental Congress (Opens Saturday, April 16, 1966, at 2:00 P.m., New York City, to proclaim the Declaration of Independence. The New York City location will be announced at a preliminary conference in Philadelphia, at 285 West Haines Street on February 12 (Lincoln's Birthday) and February 13.)

2. February 12, 1966: A call will be issued by a Viet Nam committee in the South, and BEINEN called for northern support and to stage sympathy demonstrations while demonstrations are going on in the South.

3. March 25-26, 1966: Days of Protest, in all local areas
(a planning conference will take place on Friday, December 10,
1965, at 8:00 p.m., at the United Peoples headquarters, (suite 237, 37 Madison Avenue, New York, New York 10010, telephone LE 2-6880, extension 237).

BEINEN also announced a high school workshop, to be held November 27, at 11:00 p.m., Room 110, Hotel Harrington, to involve high school students in the anti-war movement. He also announced a veterans workshop, to be held November 28, at 8:30 a.m., in the lobby of the Dunbar Hotel. BEINEN stated that a "southern call" has been issued for youth to go south in February (12 and 13), to bring discussion of the Viet Nam situation to the south. He also recommended to the audience a Viet Nam booklet (paperback), by one GETTELMAN, which he described as one of the best books currently available on the subject. BEINEN advocated the strengthening of the current National Coordinating Committee, but he did not propose a new one. He also stated that there had been a proposal to form a "civil Liberties Defense Fund", to aid in the defense of those who have committed civil liberties offenses (i.e., civil disobedience per MARY HENDERSON). They will meet on this at the Hotel Dunbar, on November 28, at 10:00 a.m. BEINEN announced and read telegrams from Viet Nam committees of Mexico, Peru and New Zealand, among others. (The Mexican telegram was to the effect that that committee was glad that the American people are making the decision as to whether or not to go to war in Viet Nam). He also read a telegram from the National Liberation Front of Viet Nam, congratulating the convention on its stand to end the war "which is costing the lives of millions of Vietnamese" (at this announcement, 4 members of PL stood and applauded, including STEVE NEWMAN and JAKE ROSEN (?)) (BEINEN also announced bus departures (i.e., 9:00 p.m. - bus will leave for Minneapolis with that delegation; 1:30 a.m. Sunday - bus will leave from the Hotel Dunbar, for Mississippi, with that delegation; 7:30 a.m. Sunday - bus will leave from the Harrington Hotel, for Canada, with that delegation.)

MARY WALTERS: She stated that 4 publications will come to be read more and more by the American people: National Guardian, Liberator, Liberation Magazine and The Militant. She predicted a new era of Mc Carthyism. She said that the right wing will become more oppressive toward the left wing as it continues to grow." She also mentioned that American youth have volunteered to fight for the Viet Cong. She said that Denver, her home city, still has the remnants of Mc Carthyism. She also cited that the "dangers" the anti-war movement faces are "from within" (i.e., "splintering"). She supports the Cuban Revolution and is against U.S. "interference" in the affairs of other nations. She also described Viet Nam committees in Denver as having a "heterogeneous character" (i.e., some people there favor withdrawal, others, negotiations; some want the Viet Cong to win, others are appalled by this idea). Her entire talk and views were closer to that of the SWP than all the other speakers:

? AUSTIN: He said that the modern day term "Negro leader" has replaced the term "Uncle Tom". He stated that "600 Uncle Toms" will meet in Washington, D.C. next week (i.e., the White House conference). He also stated that the Negro is ready for self-government and that things will get "hotter and hotter in Harlem."

STAUGHTON LYND: He stated that President JOHNSON is faced with the problem of "finding a solution that will satisfy the Viet Cong and at the same time, assure him of being re-elected President in 1968". LYND further explained that if JOHNSON lets another country "go communist", he will have to answer to the American people back home, but, if he gives up South Viet Nam, he (and the United States) will appear weak in the eyes of other nations. LYND feels that "today's demonstration may deter JOHNSON from bombing Hanoi and North Viet Nam". LYND favors withdrawal of U.S. troops from Viet Nam.

JERRY RUBIN: He stated that the current political system must be "changed". He also recommended the reading of a pamphlet on Viet Nam, by GETTELMAN. RUBIN said it would change the course of the war.

NADJIA: She brought in the question of "multi-issues" that could be related to the war in Viet Nam (i.e.; rent strikes poverty, etc.) She also emphasized concentration on the community. She represented the SDS view.

ADAM: He also represented the above view. He also does most of the research work for SDS.

DONNA ALLEN: She made the collection pitch. $503 was collected (it is believed the money was for the benefit of the current National Coordinating Committee).

(The writer did not remain to hear DAVE DELLINGER and/or other speakers or the rest of the program, which was supposed to end in a social.)

New York letter to Cincinnati, dated 12/6/65, captioned "NYL, SWP, IS - SWP".

New York letter to Chicago, dated 11/23/65, captioned "MAY 2ND MOVEMENT, IS-C".

New York letter to Philadelphia, dated 11/9/65, captioned "CCNY INDEPENDENT COMMITTEE TO END THE WAR IN VIETNAM, IS - MISC".

New York memo of SA [redacted] dated 11/4/65, captioned "MAY 2 MOVEMENT, IS - PLP".

On 11/19/65, [redacted] reliable, advised that a closed meeting of the New York Local of the Socialist Workers Party at 116 University Place, NYC, was held on 11/18/65. During the educational discussion, JACK BARNES mentioned that OGLESBY, an SDS leader, had signed the Sane "Call" which is considered a compromise on his part by the SWP and YSA, for since he is an SDS leader, this would be considered done in behalf of SDS rather than as an individual and that most SDS members would not approve.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. GUS HALL, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anti-Communist proviso was removed from the SDS Constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some Communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18, 1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

June 9, 1968

At around 1:00 PM, [redacted] and [redacted] were on a bus headed for East Lansing with [redacted] Penn State SDS, and an unidentified SDSer.

b6
b7C

At 2:30 PM, the bus arrived in East Lansing, and the five went to the Student Services Building, MSU, and registered for the SDS Convention on the first floor of the building. Registering fee was $5.00 per person. This includes SDS membership privileges.

[redacted] and [redacted] went to 527 Virginia Avenue, East Lansing, to stay with [redacted] a grad student in political science, at MSU, and a SDS member.

b6
b7C

That night, at around 7:30 PM, in the auditorium on the second floor of the student union building, SDS held a general assembly. TIM MC CARTHY, from the National Office was Chairman.

First speaker was MIKE PRICE from MSU, SDS, who told everyone not to use drugs because of the police security measures being taken the last few weeks at the MSU campus because of the student riots.

CARL DAVIDSON then spoke on SDS getting involved with foreign groups like the Japanese students, the Union of Quebec students. Also SDS, and SNCC, will always work together. He also mentioned the need to organize the working class and said that the Columbia strike helped in this respect, because it brought in community people.

Next, MARK RUDD spoke about Columbia and mentioned the fact that Columbia students were able to unite with the community and fight the administration together. More is planned for the summer with the Community Action Committee and the Liberation School. See #1.

He also mentioned that he heard several MSU, SDS people talking about burning the MSU campus down. RUDD said, "Just don't talk about those things." Insinuating to actually do it, the audience laughed. After RUDD spoke, several people got up and left. RUDD remarked there go the police agents. MC CARTHY then made a few brief announcements that at 10:00 on Monday, there would be a general assembly meeting. At about 10:00, the assembly broke up, about 200 people attended. 450 people registered through Monday.

June 10, 1968

See #2, cancelled topics underlined.

People sat around the grass and in several rooms in Berkley Hall, and just talked about their SDS Chapter work. Not many people came to these groups.

At 7:30 PM, the speakers, LES COLEMAN, JODIE CHANDLER, and MIKE JAMES, spoke in the auditorium. COLEMAN spoke about students doing work with the community during the summer. CHANDLER on the same and likewise, MIKE JAMES. At about 10:30, the meeting broke up.

The films being shown also included a Cuban film on the black riots called, "Now". Also a film on the garbage planting in Lincoln Center in New York by the Black Mask UAW-MF group.

The Spartacist League, the Socialist Worker's Party, Progressive Labor, Peace and Freedom Party, The NYC-Philadelphia Labor Committee of SDS - BOB DILLON, TONY PAPERT, LYN MARCUS, etc., all had tables up.

June 11, 1968

On Tuesday (see # 3) groups of people got together and talked about anything even non-political issues such as drugs, records, etc.

At around 3:00 PM, in the auditorium, MIKE JAMES, CARL DAVIDSON, CARL OGLESBY, etc., spoke about the coming revolution. But before the revolution there will be a short period of facism and numerous arrests and executions of SDS and other radicals. At about 8:00 everybody was just walking around doing nothing and few people did attend any workshops.

June 12, 1968

On Wednesday, the workshops began in earnest (See #4).

The sabotage workshop included BENN MOREA, a HENRY LNU from Black Mask, and ANTHONY HANYIMANOLIS, all from New York City. See # 5 for ideas discussed in workshop. At 2:00, back in the auditorium, ALAN YOUNG, from the Liberation News Service, and MIKE JAMES, from NCU, told SDS of their activities and that YOUNG could be reached at the Washington Free Press Office in D.C., and JAMES through the National SDS Office in Chicago.

NY 100-148047

The workshops resumed at around 1:30 PM. [redacted]

[redacted] and [redacted] held the G.I. Organizing workshop. [redacted] a soldier at Fort Sheridan, Indiana, and a member of the Spartacist League, also attended. See #6 for the resolution presented to the assembly for approval.

RUSS NEWFELD will be in New York to set the project up. [redacted] of the National Lawyers Guild, will do some research in legal matters concerning the project and provide the legal aid.

The panel on racism did not have any black speakers. Speakers were MIKE JAMES, who talked about the poor whites who participated in the Detroit Riot as a hopeful sign, and CARL DAVIDSON, FRED GORDON, and LES COLEMAN, who did not say anything extraordinary.

At around 10:30, the discussions stopped and JIM MC CARTHY informed everyone that on Thursday, proposals would be discussed by the body. [redacted] was not present at the convention.

June 13, 1968

At 10:30 AM, the restructuring proposals were brought up before the body. (See #7), the Black Mask and BUCKLEY proposals were stressed all day.

PL was against restructuring SDS and a Black Mask group continually started to make noise anytime anyone from PL spoke. However, even though the BUCKLEY proposal was amended, and there was talk of combining the two proposals both of the proposals failed to pass although the vote was close. JEFF GORDON was the main speaker against restructuring SDS. Program proposals, see # 8, was voted down by the body. At 11:30 PM, the discussion group broke up, about 400 attended.

(S) On 11/22/68, [REDACTED] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on 11/21/68 the MDS sponsored a lecture on the radical press in the fourth floor cafeteria of the New School for Social Research. This lecture was one of the regular series sponsored by them each Thursday under the name Pretty Boy Floyd Memorial Lecture Series.

BOB GOTTLIEB acted as chairman for this lecture and announced that there would be no lecture next Thursday. There were approximately 30 people present at this affair. The first speaker whose name was not given was announced as the editor of "RAT". The second speaker was SUSAN SUTHEIM, and the third person was an unknown white female about 24 years of age who works with Liberation News Service.

It was the general consensus of opinion in the audience that "The Guardian" is not a truly radical newspaper.

It was stated that "RAT" has lost their printer from NJ. They recently had their rent doubled and are planning to move their headquarters. It was stated that they are going to be in Brooklyn for one week only.

SUSAN SUTHEIM said that BOB GOTTLIEB has not yet applied for welfare benefits and she wishes he would do it soon.

There was an announcement by GOTTLIEB of a series of lectures to be held December 9 to 15, 1968 at NYC. It was stated that CARL DAVIDSON and CARL OGLESBY would be speaking at this series the first two or three days. There was no announcement as to what would take place the rest of the days. This series was announced as being sponsored by SDS.

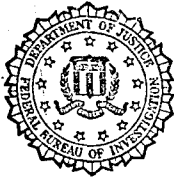

There was a man present at this lecture from Radio Free People. He was taping the talks. He was also noted at the previous lecture on Cuba which he also taped.

In general, the speakers were of the opinion that the radical press is stagnant although there is a great deal of conflict in their personal opinions and no general agreement on any subject. The big question according to them is what direction to go now. They discussed a variety of facets of the radical press but came to no firm decisions. They also argued over which publications were actually radical and even on this could not come to any general agreement. They stated that the radical movement was now more involved with radio than with printed matter. They also discussed community newspapers and stated that there is a new one coming out shortly on the West Side of NY which is funded by the "New York Times", about which paper they were in general agreement in their distaste for it. They also stated that there was a community newspaper in Chicago which is funded by Marshall Fields. In general they are opposed to community newspapers.

It was overheard that the head of Liberation News Service is one (FNU) BLOOM.

According to JONI RABINOWITZ there would be an MDS party on 11/23/68 at 148 Spring St.

The "Guardian"

On December 6, 1968, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on December 5, 1968, the "Guardian" sponsored a function at the Filmore East Theatre, 2nd Avenue at 6th Street, New York City. The title of this affair was "Radical Prospectives: 1969", a "Guardian" benefit. The occasion was to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the paper. According to source, all admissions were by advance ticket sale, of which there were some 2600 sold. The tickets sold for $2.00, $3.00, and $4.00, and there was one special section of the theatre in the center front reserved for $25.00 ticket purchases. Source stated that the entire theatre was full, with people standing in various locations.

The affair was scheduled to start at 8:00 PM, but actually did not commence until about 8:30 PM. Prior to the beginning of the main program while people were still coming into the theatre, twenty to twenty five students from Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) put on a street theatre on the stage of the Filmore East. The general theme of their play was Anti-Establishment.

Bernardine Dohrn then announced to those present that she was from SDS and would introduce the speakers for the evening. At this point, she introduced Pete Seeger, who sang a few songs and told a few jokes.

She then introduced Carl Oglesby, former president of SDS, who gave a talk whose general theme would be where the movement is going. His talk was in the manner of a rally or pep type talk to get the audience's attention.

The next speaker was Herbert Marcuse, who is a professor of philosophy at the University of California at San Diego. His theme was how the revolution should direct itself for full effectiveness. He stated that they must reject centralization and individual leaders, and pattern their revolution after that of Cuba, China and Vietnam. He stated they must reject soviet type communism. He stated they must have many many small flexible groups agitating on the community level. He emphasized they must not have any mass march on the Pentagon type of thing, that what was needed was decentralization. To achieve their goal, he stated they should have no underground. They should demonstrate overtly but keep their plans secret.

The fourth speaker was William Rose, acting general manager of the "Guardian". His talk was a general pitch for the "Guardian", with the theme more or less being where the "Guardian" has been and where it is going. He stated that they are revising the paper and are not fully satisfied with it yet. At this point, source stated that there was an obvious letdown in audience attention with a great deal of movement and some boos at which point Rose then began to talk about his trips to Cuba and North Korea this past summer, the progress there and the usual things that he has said before.

The fifth speaker introduced was Conrad Lynn. Lynn made an appeal for money for the "Guardian", which was the basis of his talk. At this point, a collection was then taken in the audience. The collection was organized with approximately forty ushers and one captain for each six ushers, and four principal collectors. The ushers collected the money which they turned over to their captains, who then turned it over to the principal collectors. The collection was under the direction of Irving Beinin, who is a member of the Coordinating Committee of the "Guardian", and the money was turned over to him at the end. Although organized, the collection created a great deal of disturbance throughout the audience. At this point, H. Rap Brown, former chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), who had been seated on the stage, walked off the stage with his two body guards who flanked him at all times, obviously upset. The other speakers later followed him off the stage and subsequently Dohrn returned and announced that Brown would not return until all the audience was seated and all was quiet.

Thereafter, Dohrn introduced H. Rap Brown, who began to speak. Brown was obviously furious at the audience for their past activity. He actually berated them, calling them such things as immature, etc. This drew responses from several people in the audience critical of him or his attitude. Brown only spoke for about ten minutes and there was no discernible theme. His behavior was brat-like and obviously alienated many in the audience. During his talk, he denounced himself as a leader of the blacks stating he was only a spokesman for SNCC. He stated that is all they need in the movement. They don't need leaders, merely spokesmen. He also discussed the recent presidential election and was critical of all three major candidates, particularly President Elect Nixon, and George C. Wallace. He told the audience that in that election, they had no choice whatsoever. At this point, he got some boos from the audience. He went on to say that if you can't keep up with the movement then drop out, they have the support they need. He then stalked off the stage with his two body guards, obviously angry. At this point, all of the negroes in the audience also rose and started out. The balance of the audience, not realizing that the affair was over, remained seated for a minute or two, and then they too started out. Subsequently, Rose announced that the affair was over and that Brown was the last speaker.

It was noted that posted throughout the theatre in strategic locations, including exits and entrances, there were security guards. All of these carried walkie-talkie radios, however, no arms were evident.

Prior to the collection, envelopes were passed out to all persons present and these were used for the majority of the collection, although some cash was handed in. A copy of the "Guardian" was placed on every seat in the theatre as a gift. There were no incidents or arrests.

Pete Seeger

On December 13, 1954, John Lautner, who at the time of his expulsion from the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), in January, 1950, was chairman of the New York State CP Review Commission, advised that he knew Pete Seeger as a CP, USA member from 1947 to 1949.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the American Labor Party:

"AMERICAN LABOR PARTY

- "1. 'For years, the Communists have put forth the greatest efforts to capture the entire American Labor Party throughout New York State. They succeeded in capturing the Manhattan and Brooklyn sections of the American Labor Party but outside of New York City they have been unable to win control.'
(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 78.)
- "2. 'Communist dissimulation extends into the field of political parties forming political front organizations such as the * * * American Labor Party. The Communists are thus enabled to present their candidates for elective office under other than a straight Communist label.'
(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)"

On October 7, 1956, PETER HAWLEY, New York State Chairman, American Labor Party, publicly announced the American Labor Party State Committee unanimously approved a resolution dissolving the organization and ordering the liquidation of its assets.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications", revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the "National Guardian":

"1. ...'established by the American Labor Party in 1947 as a "progressive" weekly...it has manifested itself from the beginning as a virtual official propaganda arm of Soviet Russia."

The February 3, 1968 issue of the "National Guardian" announced that as of the issue of February 10, 1968, the "National Guardian" would henceforth be known as the "Guardian".

The February 10, 1968 issue of the "Guardian" is self-described as an "independent radical newsweekly" and is published by Weekly Guardian Associates, Incorporated. The "Guardian" lists its address as 197 East 4th Street, New York, New York.

The February 12, 1968, issue of the "New York Times" carried an article entitled, "Radical Editors Say Their Job Is In 'Movement'". This article stated that the first issue of the "Guardian" was dedicated by the paper's staff "To those heroic Liberation fighters who last week began a major offensive against American Imperialism in South Vietnam."

This article quoted one of the editors as saying that "Our job is to build a Radical Movement. To quote the Cuban revolutionaries, we are not only to write about it, but also to move along with it--we are movement people acting as journalists."

"The 'Guardian' takes a strong left position, but it is not identified with any organized group because it believes that an American left ideology is still in the making. One of its purposes is to break away from the cliches of the left ideology of the past."

Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications", revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following concerning the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee:

"Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

"1. 'The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI. * * * The committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.'

'FRANK WILKINSON was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956 WILKINSON was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the Party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions was, "I am answering no questions of this committee." This also became his stock reply to questions when he appeared during the Atlanta hearings. * * * WILKINSON has since been convicted of contempt of Congress and sentenced to one year in jail.'

'Disputing the non-Communist claim of the organization, the committee finds that a number of other individuals connected with the ECLC also have been identified under oath as Communists. * * *'

(Committee on Un-American Activities, Annual Report for 1958, House Report 187, March 9, 1959, pp. 34 and 35.)

"2. 'To defend the cases of Communist law-breakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these fronts offer a bulwark of protection.' (Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)"

"The New York Times", a New York City daily newspaper, in its April 1, 1968, issue, page 13, contained an item captioned, "Draft Dissenters to Get More Help", which related that at a news conference held by the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) on the previous day, it was announced that the organization was changing its name to the National Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (NECLC) "to reflect our determination to develop a vital national civil liberties organization in all 50 states as rapidly as possible."

A source advised on June 13, 1968, that the NECLC is located at 25 East 26th Street, New York City.

STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

Literature distributed by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), headquartered at 360-362 Nelson Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, describes itself as not being a membership organization, but rather an agency attempting to stimulate and foster the growth of local protest movements. SNCC was born out of the sit-in movement which erupted across the South beginning on February 1, 1960. A conference at Raleigh, North Carolina, that Spring, brought together many of the demonstrating Southern students in a loose network of militant youth which was officially named SNCC in October, 1960.

A source has advised that in May, 1966, STOKELY CARMICHAEL was elected National Chairman by the Central Committee. In May, 1967, CARMICHAEL was replaced as Chairman by H. RAPP BROWN, with CARMICHAEL assuming the position of Recruiter and Organizer for the SNCC. In August, 1967, at the invitation of FIDEL CASTRO, CARMICHAEL participated in the Organization of Latin American Solidarity Conference which was held in Havana, Cuba. Subsequent thereto, CARMICHAEL traveled to Hanoi and other sections of North Vietnam. He returned to the United States in December, 1967, at which time his passport was picked up because of travel to unauthorized countries.

A source advised that when CARMICHAEL was elected Chairman of SNCC, the organization embarked on a program of eliminating Caucasians from its ranks. With the election of H. RAP BROWN as Chairman in 1967, it embarked on a worldwide struggle for human rights and to take a firm stand against violations of these rights by the American Government and to strengthen its programs of opposition to the draft and to the United States involvement in Vietnam.

Literature distributed in February, 1968, identifies SNCC as an organization in the revolutionary vanguard. It advocates that to be successful it is necessary to develop a revolutionary ideology and revolutionary program. CPO-2543

On August 13, 1967, while addressing a group in the Watts area of Los Angeles, California, H. RAP BROWN said "You better shape up America, or we'll burn you down." Later in February, 1968, in a publicized note BROWN wrote, "America, if it takes my death to organize my people to revolt against you and to organize your jails to revolt against you and to organize your children, your God, your poor, your country, and to organize mankind to rejoice in your destruction and ruin, then here's my life"

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam, and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. GUS HALL, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us". At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anticommunist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes", the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some Communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of July 24, 1968, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.
